Mrs. Duff and Mayor Samuel to Open Devon Fair on Walnut St.

A springtime festival in the heart of Philadelphia is the "Devon Country Fair on Walnut Street," which is to be held on April 16 and 17. From Broad to 18th on Walnut St., the row is to become a country lane, with street entertainment, carousels, gay outdoor booths and flower-carts transforming the busy street.

The mid-town fair was originated in 1946 by the Devon Horse Show and Country Fair and the Walnut St. Association. One of the highlights of the year, it is now to become an annual event.

A whirlwind of entertainment is to be presented throughout the two days, after Mrs. James H. Duff, wife of the Governor of Pennsylvania, and Mayor Bernard Samuel officially open the fair at Broad St. on Wednesday morning, April 16th.

Special street shows are to be presented by many radio stations—KYW's "Lunchtime with a Punchline," to be given each day at 12:30; WPCN's Street Interviews by Mrs. Frances McGuire; WIP's "Lobby Parley," at noon on the opening day; Visual Broadcasts by WIBG, with guest stage stars, at 2:30 on each of the fair days. WDAF's "Ranch House Jamboree," starring the Sons of the Rangers, is to be given at 11:30 A. M. on April 17th, with the artists arriving via horse and hay-wagon.

One of the most flavorful events of the opening day will be the parade of "horseless carriages" at high noon, when ancient auto-buggies, ranging in age from 1900 to 1919, tootle up Walnut St. Drivers and guest celebrities who are to be passengers will be garbed in the quaint motoring costumes of an earlier day.

Thirty-five shops in the smart street are to become "Devon booths," donating a share of their proceeds to the Devon Horse Show and Country Fair program for Bryn Mawr Hospital. Mrs. John Y. Huber, Jr., is chairman of the fair, and August Lincoln and Walter B. Turner, vice-chairmen for the Walnut St. Association.

A contest to select "Miss Walnut Street," and another for the best window displays, is to be held in the afternoon of the second day. Another feature is the "Lucky Balloon Release," with many of the balloons containing orders for prizes.

Devon Country Fair on Walnut St. will be open from 10:00 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. each of the two days.

The Spectator

has patronized this very good establishment for 25 years and the owner-manager came over to sit with him. The operating statement for 1946 was soon on the table. It showed a net profit of $31,000 to the one-man corporation on the year's turnover of $293,000. The costs included an executive salary to the sole-owner of $35,000. The place serves lunch and dinner only, closing at 9 P. M. This patron presumed to suggest, based on the figures, that there seemed to be no inconsistent need of charging $2.25 for roast beef (no extras), but the boss was almost choleric in his protest, as he claimed high costs and the unions were utterly "ruining the business."

The same evening in the coffee shop of the Pennsylvania Hotel the well-spoken English waitress said they never served roast beef, as counter patrons would simply not pay the $1.75 they had to charge. She said that the dining rooms in the hotel had it on the menu twice a week, but $2.00 was the minimum price for table service.

Of course, those in the business can better explain why this centerpiece of American eating must be priced at such figures, but this reporter is a specialist in buying and carving prime ribs for home use (yes, sir!) and even the prices he pays as a consumer would seem to make a profit possible at $1.50 for everything, soup to nuts, with clean cloth to eat from. That's not his trade, however, and he's probably wrong, but he does know that Horn and Hardart's roast beef at 60c (vegetables included) is as good as the country has, even if it is sometimes sliced in diaphanous manner.

The thing called buyer's resistance is on in full force, as the greatly diminished sales of women's wear for the Easter holiday, as a case in point, helped to prove, and it would seem that restaurant and store mark-ups must be reduced as well as primary costs. Macy's page ads last week, beseeching lower prices from the manufacturers, claimed that retail selling costs had little bearing on ultimate prices. What does Macy sell that has not been marked up at least 30% (usually 40% plus) over cost, and how does it come that one-third of the actual price is regarded as an insignificant amount? Prices must and will go down and everybody who can help should join the prosperity parade.

Nor should we assert too quickly that wages must be pinched before prices recede. American business has always bitterly fought, at first, the very things which ultimately proved to be to its own best benefit. Low cost money has certainly helped to make the banks more useful and perhaps more profitable ventures than ever before. Lower industrial nets might mean the nation's (and the world's) economic salvation. In any event, they would better square with that moral concept of stewardship which is stressed in the many studies made by the various church and social groups. In the long run, it is expected, there will be nothing more compensating, more enduring, than that, for Adam Smith does not seem quite so firm on his "Wealth of Nations" throne and there is a clear call for a surer format to help attain the more normal lives of all the people.

A friendship that makes the least noise is very often the most useful.

Suplee

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, who married the former Helen Main, of Cynwyd, and their daughter, Mrs. Robert Dowd, of Bethesda, Maryland, whose husband is a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy Secret Service. The Suplees have one granddaughter, Barbara Clair, Mrs. Dowd's four-year-old daughter.

George Suplee says his hobby is his work, in which he "tries to please the taxpayers."

His work for "the taxpayers" actually began in 1919 when he was named Secretary of the Board of Health. It was the next year that he was made Street Commissioner and then Health Officer for the Borough.

Appointments Come Fast

In 1921 he was appointed Plumbing Inspector and in 1924 was made Building Inspector. By 1927, it was obvious that he was, in effect, Superintendent of Public Works, as Council gave him the title officially.

During his years in Narberth, he has held many other positions of responsibility, including membership in the Fire Company and being its treasurer for many years. He is a life member of the Fire Company and he holds one of the longest continuous memberships in the Presbyterian Church and is on its Board of Trustees. He is an active Mason, and he used to be a pigeon fancier in his early days in Narberth.

His various duties come under the headings of different departments. As Public Works Superintendent, he supervises ash and trash collections as well as sewage and drainage of the Borough; as Building Inspector, he issues building permits and inspects Narberth's homes and business buildings.

His Other Duties

Under the classification of Plumbing Inspector, he looks after the Borough's playgrounds and issues permits for plumbing installations, while as Secretary of the Board of Health he takes care of the Board's correspondence. As Borough Health Officer he takes care of all complaints and quarantines all houses in case of contagious diseases.

He supervises the work of eight laborers and one foreman and submits monthly reports to Council on each of his departments, keeping them informed of what's going on throughout the Borough.

Church Federation Asks Auto Crash Damages

A suit for damages has been filed in Norristown by the Main Line Federation of Churches against Joseph O'Neill, of Bryn Mawr, operator of an automobile which, it is alleged in the suit, crashed into the Ardmore Bargain Counter last Nov. 18.

Damages to the store, operated by the Federation, is said to have amounted to $400.

Salvation Army 1947 Campaign Opens Here

Mrs. Patterson Heads Local Workers in Appeal for Funds

The Salvation Army's annual appeal for support of its 27 social-welfare agencies in Philadelphia opened this Thursday under the leadership of Paul M. McCusker, general chairman.

Approximately 20,000 volunteer workers have been mobilized and briefed and are ready to start the spade work of solicitation.

The campaign, which will continue through May, was launched with a "dutch treat" luncheon attended by approximately 1000 ward chairmen and captains in the main ballroom of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel.

Principal speaker at the luncheon was General Evangeline Booth, former International Commander of the Salvation Army and daughter of General William Booth, founder. For 30 years, she served as National Commander of the Salvation Army in America. Now 81, she is still active, a forceful speaker and a dynamic personality.

Mrs. Joseph M. Patterson, of Rose Lane, Haverford, Chairman of the Suburban Division, is being assisted by the following: A. J. Drexel Paul, of Radnor, Honorary Chairman; Edward W. Shober, of Valley Forge, chairman; Mrs. William Innes, Jr., of Villanova, and Mrs. Richard S. Chew, of Cynwyd, as Vice Chairmen; Van Horn Ely, of Bryn Mawr, as Chairman of Business and Industry.

The local chairmen are William E. Somers, 3rd, of Ardmore; Mrs. W. W. Deal, of Bala-Cynwyd; Mrs. Christian C. F. Spahr, of Bryn Mawr; James Owens, Sr., of Bryn Mawr business; Mrs. Robert Hughes, for Berwyn, Malvern and Paoli; Robert Sears, for Devon, and Mrs. Grant Oelwiler, for Gladwyne.

Also, Mrs. John S. Sharpe, for Haverford; Walter L. Fottrell, for Ithaca; Mrs. Julia B. Jacobs, for West Mahanoy; Mrs. William G. Walton, for Merion; Mrs. John E. Wetzel, for Narberth; Mrs. F. H. Mrs. Benjamin H. Barnett gave a Tea Tuesday afternoon for her 40 workers for the 1947 campaign. Mrs. Joseph H. Dulles, organizer Main Line campaign, told of the work of the Salvation Army and explained the use of the contributions to the drive.

Mr. Edward W. Shober, Chairman Main Line, has reported his chairman and workers 100% ready to go, anticipating generous public support. Main Line quota has been set at $91,720.

Any volunteer workers have been asked to contact Mrs. Dulles at Ardmore 2774.

Counties Urged To Co-operate In Hospital Plans

Doctors Cite Need for New Contagious Disease Unit in This Area

A proposal that two or more counties bordering on Montgomery County co-operate to build a hospital for contagious diseases was made at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Main Line Federation of Churches.

Dr. Donald Macfarlan, Ardmore physician, stated that doctors had long discussed plans for a Montgomery County hospital for contagious diseases, but added that it had been generally felt that such a plan was not practical since it would stand empty too much of the time.

Other Action Tuesday

The Federation decided, upon the recommendation of Miss Emily Vauy, chairman of the Case Work Committee, that it would no longer lend money to applicants unless they agreed upon a weekly or monthly budget with case workers prior to borrowing money.

"The Main Line Federation of Churches is a relief agency, not a borrowing agency," it was stated at Tuesday night's meeting, held at headquarters, 18 Simpson road, Ardmore.

"Detention home care," stated Mrs. J. Henry Scattergood, of Bryn Mawr, a representative of the Delaware County League of Women Voters and speaker of the evening, "needs more staff assistants especially trained in that type of work."

$150,000 Home in Media

"Today there is a most urgent need for more people to go into that type of work. Despite the fact that there is a $150,000 home in Media, it needs more recreational facilities, more medical examinations and further expert juvenile care throughout," she added.

Mrs. Thomas Huff, chairman of the Volunteer Committee, reported that plans are underway for the Little Garden Day to be held next month at the Community Building grounds in Bryn Mawr.

Dr. B. L. Scott, president of the Federation introduced two new members: Walter Rose, a representative of the Lower Merion Township Engineers, representing Christ Church, Overbrook Hills; and James Costello, of the United Autoworkers, CIO, of the Autocar Company, representing the CIO.

SERVICES HELD FOR MRS. HERBERT BELL

Funeral services for Mrs. C. Herbert Bell, mother of Frederic P. Carter, Jr., of 515 Dudley Ave., Narberth, were held at her home, Chester and Fairfield Rds., Devon, last Tuesday.

Mrs. Bell died at home suddenly, March 28. She was born in Philadelphia, but she had lived in Devon for a number of years.

In addition to her son, who is associated with Carter and Turnau, Inc., 280 Haverford Ave., Narberth, she is survived by her husband and a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Thomas, of Palm Beach, Florida, and five grandchildren.

Interment was in Old St. David's Church, Radnor.

Narberth Scout Notes

Narberth Club Pack 212 was entertained by its Den 6, which gave a skit on the use and care of tools found on the work bench. While the cubbers were enjoying a half-hour of recreation chairman William Clear outlined to parents the program for the next six months.

Cubmaster Sam Barclay made various awards and graduated two cubs, William Hoesch and George Barclay, who have joined Narberth Scout Troop No. 1. The Pack also received its achievement award from the general council.

It was announced that a cub pow-wow will be held at the Radnor High School, Wayne, on the afternoon and evening of April 19th.

A paper drive in collaboration with Narberth Scout Troop No. 1 has been arranged, collections to be made on Saturday mornings of May 3 and 10.

Narberth housewives have been urged to put aside newspapers and magazines for collection on those dates.

How many do you have in your house?

Counting on your fingers is fair. But first, make a quick guess! How many electric motors do your home-work for you? Would you say 3? 5? Maybe 10?

Now count 'em up. It's easier if you think of them room by room. How about the bedrooms? All electric clocks and shavers have motors. So do the fans you use in summer.

There's a motor in the electric refrigerator, the food mixer, the ventilating fan. (The list below will remind you of others.) Don't skip any rooms. Even the basement and storeroom may be rich picking.

Finished? How does the count compare with your guess? Most people guess way low. Actually 10 motors per house is common—20 is not unusual!

But, whatever the number, the point is true. We seldom realize how many jobs electricity does for us, because it does them so dependably, regularly and cheaply.

You've helped bring this about by taking advantage of so many electrical opportunities. And the men and women of the business-managed electric companies are always working to bring you better service at lower cost. That's why the price of electricity has gone down and down, while the price of almost everything else has gone up and up.

Listen to the Electric Hour—the HOUR OF CHARM. Sundays, 4:30 P. M., EST, WCAU.

VILLANOVA PROFILE

A veteran of 17 seasons of major and minor league pitching, Philip (Lefty) Weinert is in his second season as head baseball coach at Villanova College. Weinert guided Villanova's initial post-war combination to 11 victories in 18 games. Quiet and hard working, Weinert knows baseball, its tactics and requirements. Understanding and experienced, he is a valuable college coach who imparts his diamond knowledge in an interesting manner. Weinert received his training under several outstanding managers.

Phil began his baseball career as a Philadelphia schoolboy hurler. Upon graduation from high school, he joined the Phillies and was assigned to Reading of the International League. Recalled in 1920, he spent five years with the Phillies.

He was traded to Los Angeles in 1925 but did not report until the franchise was moved to San Francisco in 1927. Phil hurled 17 wins for the Missions and in August of that year was purchased by the Chicago Cubs, managed by Joe McCarthy. He added two more victories to his season's total.

Traded to Memphis of the Southern Association in 1928, he moved to Louisville in 1930. He posted an 18-11 record as the Colonels won the American Association pennant. Drafted by the Yankees in 1931, Weinert once more played under McCarthy. He returned to Louisville late in 1932, remaining there until 1935.

Last season, Weinert managed General Electric to the Philadelphia Industrial League title. His eldest son, Gene, hurled for Villanova in 1942 and 1943.

BROOKLINE, L. MERION VETS MEET FRIDAY AT ARDMORE IN SIXTH PLAYOFF GAME

By HARRY ELLSWORTH

Staving off a desperate last-period rally, the Lower Merion Veterans edged out Brookline, 49-47, last Saturday night to even the Main Line League championship series at two games apiece.

The fifth game of the torrid seasaw series was played Wednesday night at Lower Merion and the sixth contest is slated for Friday night at Brookline's gym on Lower night.

Brookline's surprise zone defense posed no problem for the Vets as they raced to a 29-20 halftime lead. After a tight first period in which the Maroon held a 10-9 lead, Chuck Viguers replaced Bill Koehler in the Veterans' lineup and Stan Thomas' charges began to move.

Viguers not only teamed with big Don Evans to control the backboards but also contributed five field goals on tap-ins.

Brookline shaved its deficit to six points in the third period, outscoring the Lower Merion Vets by 15 to 12. The Vets, however, pulled out to 45-35, depending mainly on the fine set shooting of Hank Belber.

The Brooks, who were being directed by Joe Cave in the absence of Manager Herb Good, came back fighting with Charlie Gunther, Bill Thomas and Bill Zeiss leading the attack.

A leaping underhand shot by Zeiss, former Yeadon High flash, sliced Lower Merion's lead to a mere 48-47 with two and a half minutes to go. Evans converted a foul shot to make the score 49-47 in favor of the Veterans.

Both teams missed numerous shots in the last couple of minutes and kept the game close until the majority of the time. With

BOROTRA AT ARENA

Veteran of two world wars, Jean Borotra, famed "Bouncing Basque" and one of the all-time greats of tennis, is coming to Philadelphia on Thursday, April 24, to play an international match at the Arena for the benefit of the "Stade de Coubertin"—known as the Indoor Tennis Club of Paris.

L. M. Tossers Seek First Win Over Radnor

By JACK FORD

Beaten in its first three starts, Lower Merion High's baseball team, guided for the traditional encounter with Radnor, scheduled for this Thursday afternoon at Ardmore.

Gen. Raue's inexperienced operatives dropped an 8-1 decision to Northeast High in their inaugural, then were beaten by Episcopal Academy (2-0) and by Friends Central, another Inter-academic League contender, 7-4, last Tuesday.

Jack Dale, Episcopal pitcher, was credited with a no-hit, no-run game as Lower Merion lost on the Churchmans' City Line diamond. He faced only 26 L. M. batters in the seven-inning game, struck out nine and walked three. Meanwhile, Episcopal sluggers touched Al Kirk, Bob Walters and Sam Gianopolis for five hits.

Gianopolis, who will start against Radnor today, hurled the first two innings against Friends Central and tossed a no-hit, no-run for the next three innings and gave up two hits and two runs as L. M. clutched a 4-2 lead.

In the sixth, however, Al Kirk took over and Friends Central clubbed him for four runs to triumph. Leading L. M.'s eight-hit attack was Don Townsend, who had a triple, double and single. Al Kohler collected two singles, while Len Shepherd, George Maxwell and Ted Hoffman had one each.

Five lettermen are available to coach but two—Outfielder Sam Miliken and Ed Strohach—still are nursing football injuries. They are expected to see little action this year.

The team's only experienced pitcher, Bill Lutz, is scholastically ineligible. He consequently wasn't expected to lend much support there this season. The only other available, all right-handers and all inexperienced, include Al Kirk, Bill Sidler, basketballer Bob Walters and Sam Gianopolis.

The three half and hearty lettermen included Don Townsend, centerfielder who may take a turn on the mound if the others don't display anything; Catcher Len Shepherd and Ted Hoffman, second base.

Don Leiter is a fixture at first base, with Bob DiMarco rounding out the infield at shortstop. Connie Mack, 3d, grandson of the Athletics' loan star, is in the lineup. Roy Mack will be in left field, with either Al Adams or Lefty Maloney in right field.

Jim Haslam is Shepherd's understudy behind the plate. Reserve fielders are George Maxwell, Al Kohler and Nick Capelli.

Coach Reeves, starting his eighth season as L. M. coach, announced that the team will have a bye week with F. R. Central had been moved back to a later date.

Huber Smith, who was a third stringer last season, is expected to draw the mound assignment for the Vets, with Skippy Muir behind the bat. The only other available member of last year's team is Don Griffith, outfielder.

The Fords dropped their first two starts this season, bowing to Episcopal Academy and to Northeast High before the Easter vacation. Chick Shapiro, Northeast hurler, registered a no-hit, no-run game as the Archives won, 5-0. Only three Fords reached first base, all via walks.

MOTTER JOINS ROCKETS

Alex Motter, former Stanley Cup star with the Detroit Redwings, will play defense for the Philadelphia Rockets in the American Hockey League next season. Peter A. Tyrrell, general manager of the Arena, made the deal with Eddie Shore, owner of the Springfield Indians, for whom Motter played on defense during the regular season just completed.

CARE Blanks Still Available At Local Stores

Three $10 Packages May Be Sent Abroad Tax Free

Remittance blanks for CARE packages will continue to be available at several local stores, officials of the group have announced.

The stores are: The Brackbill Markets in Ardmore and Wayne, the Main Line Co-operative Store in Bryn Mawr, Ansley's in Wayne and the Book Department of the Strawberry and Clothier Store on Suburban Square.

Other Locations
Information or assistance may be obtained at any time from Miss Elizabeth Towle, Old Buck Inn, Haverford, and from Henry Feitz, Brackbill's Market, Ardmore.

The Women's Clubs of Wynwyd, Narberth, Ardmore, Bryn Mawr and Wayne, which supply volunteers who were at the CARE booth while it was at Strawberry and Clothier's and at Ansley's have a large supply of folders and remittance blanks for distribution.

Three CARE Packages
Cooperative for American Remittances to Europe is a non-profit organization which sells three different standard $10 packages with delivery to any specified address guaranteed. There is a food package containing over 40,000 calories; a woolens package which supplies enough all wool material for a suit, cotton cloth to line it with, and sewing materials; and a package with two wool blankets.

These are delivered ration-free, tax-free, and duty-free in Austria, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Finland, France, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Rumania, the American, British and French zones of Germany and all of Berlin.
